

READY FOR A BREAK THROUGH?

I offer a variety of affordable self care options from remote coaching and akashic record reading sessions over video to in-person energy clearing and hypnosis sessions.

To book a session and reserve a time and date, I request a small non-refundable deposit that goes towards your session balance. After booking, I will reach out to set up and confirm our online or in person meeting details with you. Remaining session balance is due upon our meeting.

Feel free to contact me by email: meniyka@gmail.com, by text 858.652.0799 or through the form below for a complimentary 10 minute consultation. We can discuss your goals and aims.

Following each session, I will email you a summary of what we discussed, as well as any suggestions and resources for you to review or practice going forward.

REFUND, RESCHEDULING & CANCELLATION POLICY

You are welcome to reschedule with me at anytime if something comes up. If you need to cancel for some unforeseen reason, please reschedule your session for a later time with at least 24 hours notice. Your booking is good for one year out from the date of payment. You also have the option to gift your session or remaining sessions to someone else!

I set aside our time specifically for you, meaning you are my #1 priority and everyone and everything else in my world is on hold during our scheduled time. Please do your best to make your session the priority. Of course things do come up in life, I always do my best to accommodate.

Thank you and looking forward to working with you!
